MARINA ADVISORY NO. 2019-28 :
Series of 2019

TO : ALL SHIPPING COMPANIES/ OWNERS/OPERATORS AND ALL CONCERNED

SUBJECT : ADVISORY TO ALLOW RELAXATION OF SAILING SCHEDULES OF SHIPS

For the safe and orderly resumption of service in all affected areas along the path of Typhoon "Tisoy," and to prevent the stranding of passengers at ports and terminals, all domestic ships that were already granted clearance by the Philippine Coast Guard (PCG) after the lifting of typhoon signal warning hoisted in the affected areas within the ship's areas of operation, are allowed to sail outside their authorized sailing schedules, subject to the following conditions:

1. That the PCG shall ensure the orderly and priority clearance of ships;
2. That the Certificate of Public Convenience/ Special Permit is valid and has not yet expired and that all the ship's documents remain valid/updated; and,
3. That a letter-notice shall be submitted to the MARINA or its nearest Regional Office covering the adjustment of schedule of trips within twenty-four (24) hours from the date of the ship's departure in the affected port/s.

For guidance and compliance of all concerned.
