MARINA ADVISORY NO. 2022-52

Series of 2022

TO : ALL DOMESTIC SHIPPING COMPANIES, SHIP OWNERS/OPERATORS/CHARTERERS AND OTHER CONCERNED

SUBJECT : PROCEDURE IN THE FILING OF MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION/ APPEALS FROM DECISIONS RENDERED IN CPC-RELATED CASES

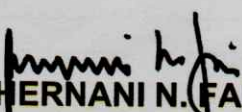

Pursuant to the exercise of the quasi-judicial function of this Authority, all CPC holders which intend to file motions for reconsideration or appeals from the decisions rendered by the MARINA Regional Offices (MROs) are advised to file the same in accordance with the proper procedure and period stipulated under the MARINA Rules of Practice and Procedure (MRRPP).

Under Rule II, Section 23 of the MRRPP, motions for reconsideration shall be filed in the MARINA Regional Office (MRO) where the application or complaint was originally filed, stating therein, among others, the findings or conclusions of the judgment or final order not supported by the evidence or which are contrary to law.

Likewise, under Section 24 of Rules II and III of the same MRRPP, appeals shall be taken by filing a notice of appeal with the MRO where the application or complaint was originally filed, accompanied by an appeal memorandum and payment of the corresponding appeal fee.

All shipping operators considering the availment of the above remedies are enjoined to take note of these procedures. Non-compliance thereof shall cause the motu proprio dismissal of the motion for reconsideration or appeal, as case may be. Finally, a copy of the notice of appeal filed must be furnished to the Franchising Service for monitoring purposes.

For strict compliance.
